Invitation & Unison Prayer of Confession:

We confess, Lord God, that when it comes to living as Christ would have us live, we fall short.

We sometimes struggle with the issues of impatience with others, a preoccupation with our concerns, with our agendas to the exclusion of the needs of others. We can be overly sensitive about what others think of us, and we have been known to hide our true convictions because of pressure from others.

Unlike Christ, we find it difficult to sacrifice ourselves for others and we can hold too tightly to those things that we consider to be our own. Amen.

Prayer for Illumination: (All readings NRSV; see below)
O God, giver of eternal joy, fountain of life from whom flow endless blessings, all that we have is a gift from you. Accept now these offerings of thanksgiving, symbols of our grateful response to Christ's sacrifice for us. Use our gifts to share the good news of repentance and forgiveness of sins. May they help bring renewal and refreshment in the lives of Your people. Amen.

Scripture Lesson: John 13:1-15, 34-35

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, 'Lord, are you going to wash my feet?' Jesus answered, 'You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand.' Peter said to him, 'You will never wash my feet.' Jesus answered, 'Unless I wash you, you have no share with me.' Simon Peter said to him, 'Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!' Jesus said to him, 'One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you.' For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, 'Not all of you are clean.' After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, 'Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord – and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.' (The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.)

Responsive Psalm: Ps 148 Praise for God's Universal Glory

- R: Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights!
- C: Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his host!
- R: Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars!
- C: Praise him, you highest heavens,
and you waters above the heavens!
- R: Let them praise the name of the LORD,
for he commanded and they were created.
He established them for ever and ever;
he fixed their bounds, which cannot be passed.
- C: Praise the LORD from the earth,
you sea monsters and all deeps,
fire and hail, snow and frost,
stormy wind fulfilling his command!
- R: Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars!
Wild animals and all cattle,
creeping things and flying birds!
- C: Kings of the earth and all peoples,
princes and all rulers of the earth!
Young men and women alike,
old and young together!
- R: Let them praise the name of the LORD,
for his name alone is exalted;
his glory is above earth and heaven.
- All: He has raised up a horn for his people,
praise for all his faithful,
for the people of Israel who are close to him.
Praise the LORD!*

Additional Scripture: Acts 10:44-48

Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, 'Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?' So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Additional Scripture: 1 John 5:1-6 Faith Conquers the World

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

(The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.)
