A COMMUNITY LOVING GOD
BY LOVING OUR NEIGHBOURS

At St. Andrew's, Brampton, we:

*learn together to know God's love through worship, study and prayer;
put our faith into action by loving and caring for each other;
use God's gifts to go forth to bring others to Christ.*

The Rite of Reconciliation

Invitation & Unison Prayer of Confession:

We confess, holy and loving God,

that although we love one another,

we often fall short of verbalizing that love;

and in our neglect we miss opportunities

to reinforce that love. In the same manner,

although we love You, we seldom say so.

We neglect to say thank you for the provisions of life
and for life itself.

We are quick to complain and to question,

but slow to praise and honour.

Forgive our neglect, we pray,

and accept these our faltering words:

we love You, Lord. Amen.

* Unison Prayer of Dedication:

Remembering that all love is from God and that everyone who loves is born of God and knows God, in this spirit we present our offering as one of the indicators of our love - our love for You, O God, and our love for one another, which includes the stranger and those known to us, as all
are precious in Your sight. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Today begins a series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer, as we, like the disciples, ask, "Lord, teach us to pray." We pray the Lord's Prayer so often that it is in danger of becoming a ritual. The Lord's Prayer contains all the basic beliefs of our faith, and the sermon series seeks to turn a 'ritual prayer' into a prayer that will glow with life and faith amidst the reality of everyday living.

Stewardship Moment

Gratitude doesn't send you out shopping to find satisfaction; it comes as a gift rather than a commodity, subverting the foundation of the whole economy... . That's good medicine for land and people alike.

Readings for Sunday, July 28, 2024:

Scripture Lesson: Ecclesiastes 5:1-7

On Entering the Place of Worship

Guard your steps when you go to the house of God; to draw near to listen is better than the sacrifice offered by fools; for they do not know how to keep from doing evil. Never be rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be quick to utter a word before God, for God is in heaven, and you upon earth; therefore let your words be few. For dreams come with many cares, and a fool's voice with many words. When you make a vow to God, do not delay fulfilling it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Fulfil what you vow. It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not fulfil it. Do not let your mouth lead you into sin, and do not say before the messenger that it was a mistake; why should God be angry at your words, and destroy the work of your hands? With many dreams come vanities and a multitude of words; but fear God.

(The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.)

Responsive Psalm: Psalm 148

A Call for the Universe to Praise God

R: Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD from the heavens;

praise him in the heights!

Praise him, all his angels;

praise him, all his host!

C: Praise him, sun and moon;

praise him, all you shining stars!

Praise him, you highest heavens,

and you waters above the heavens!

R: Let them praise the name of the LORD,

for he commanded and they were created.

He established them for ever and ever;

he fixed their bounds, which cannot be passed.

C: Praise the LORD from the earth,
you sea monsters and all deeps,
fire and hail, snow and frost,
stormy wind fulfilling his command!

R: Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars!

Wild animals and all cattle,
creeping things and flying birds!

C: Kings of the earth and all peoples,
princes and all rulers of the earth!

Young men and women alike, old and young together!

R: Let them praise the name of the LORD,
for his name alone is exalted;

his glory is above earth and heaven.

*All: He has raised up a horn for his people,
praise for all his faithful,*

for the people of Israel who are close to him.

Praise the LORD!

Additional Scripture: 1 Timothy 1:12-17 Gratitude for Mercy

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners – of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Additional Scripture: John 17:20-23

'I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.'
