Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name,

Church Memorial

The Session of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church is seeking ideas for a church memorial project. The idea would be a space, place or wall where members of the church can have names of late loved ones or friends written or engraved, such as on bricks, rocks, brass/bronze plates, etc., at an affordable price. The initial idea was a garden where rocks with engraved plates could be placed, but the issue of upkeep was raised as a concern. Other ideas include a wall with memorial bricks/plates, or an object like a synthetic tree with metal leaves engraved with names and dates. The idea is something in the church with which we can memorialize former members of the church who have died, and which will not cost too much for individual members to purchase. We would like to open up the floor to the congregation to get some more ideas before we commit to something permanent. Please contact Rev. Byron Kappes at rev.byronkappes@gmail.com with your own ideas or preferences.

The publisher hereby grants permission to reprint the material within the box below for the purpose of making performance of this anthem possible with congregational participation, provided that a sufficient quantity of copies of the entire anthem has been purchased for performance by the choir and accompanist. Readings for Sunday, June 15, 2025:

1st Scripture Lesson: John 16:12-15

The Spirit will guide you into the truth

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

2nd Scripture Lesson: Romans 5:1-5

God's love poured into our hearts

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

(The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.)

Responsive Psalm: Psalm 8 How exalted is your name

R: O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.

C: Out of the mouths of babes and infants
you have founded a bulwark because of your foes,
to silence the enemy and the avenger.

R: When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;
what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?

C: Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honour.

R: You have given them dominion over the works
of your hands;
you have put all things under their feet,
all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

*All: O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!*

* The Apostles' Creed: (please stand if able)

Let us confess our faith together in the words of The Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
