Invitation & Unison Prayer of Confession:

Merciful God, we acknowledge and confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed; we have not always loved you with all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength; we have not always loved our neighbour as ourselves. Deepen within us our sorrow for the wrong we have done, and the good we have left undone. Lord, you are full of compassion and graciousness, you are slow to anger, and full of mercy; there is always forgiveness with you! Restore to us the joy of your salvation; bind up that which is broken, give light to our minds, strength to our wills, and rest to our souls. Speak to each of us, and let your word abide with us until it has worked your holy will in us. Amen.

The Sacrament of Baptism

July 5, 2026

Baptism is a gift from God. With visible signs and words of promise, God moves towards us to claim us as children of the new covenant and members of the household of God. In baptism, God acts to unite us in Christ, to deliver us from the power of sin and death, and to call us into a new life of growth and service.

In the Sacrament of Baptism, the Church recognizes God's covenant of grace. We receive God's gift with joy and respond in faith.

Remember the words that Peter spoke on the day of Pentecost: "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, every one whom the Lord our God calls." (Acts 2:38-39)

Today we welcome into God's family through the Sacrament of Baptism the following children of God:

Mavis Evelyn Orrom,
daughter of Carson Orrom and Michelle Orrom;

The congregation and visitors are asked to refrain from taking photos during the Holy Sacrament of Baptism. Rev. Emma Duncan is happy to join with the baptismal families for photos after the worship service.

As Rev. Byron Kappes, Rev. Emma Duncan and our Clerk of Session, Debbie Warwick, congratulate the baptism families after the Sacrament, we invite you to give them a warm St. Andrew's welcome by way of applause!

 The Apostles' Creed:

Let us confess our faith together in the words of The Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Readings for Sunday, July 5, 2026:

First Scripture Lesson: Matthew 11:16-19, 25-30

“But to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to one another, ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.’ “For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon’; the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.” At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. “Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

(The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.)

Responsive Psalm: Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18

R: I will sing of your steadfast love, O Lord, forever; with my mouth I will proclaim your faithfulness to all generations.

C: I declare that your steadfast love is established forever; your faithfulness is as firm as the heavens.

R: You said, “I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn to my servant David:

C: ‘I will establish your descendants forever and build your throne for all generations.’

R: Happy are the people who know the festal shout, who walk, O Lord, in the light of your countenance;

C: they exult in your name all day long and extol your righteousness.

R: For you are the glory of their strength; by your favor our horn is exalted.

All: For our shield belongs to the Lord, our king to the Holy One of Israel.
