THE ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

(Responsive text is in bold.)

Call to Remembrance:

Let us remember the kindness of God,
As we remember those lost to us during times of war.

Let us remember the courage,
The devotion to duty,
and the self-sacrifice of those in our armed forces;
for the toil, endurance,
and suffering of those who were not in uniform;
the support of those who sent all they had to defend peace.
All: We will remember them.

Let us remember those who perished in air-raids in their homes;
Those who fell in battle, and are buried at sea
Or in some corner of a foreign field;
And especially those whom we may have known and loved,
Whose place is for ever in our hearts.
All: We will remember them.

Let us remember those who were our enemies,
Whose homes and hearts are as bereft as ours,
Whose dead also lie in a tomb of everlasting remembrance.
All: We will remember them.

Let us remember those who came back;
Those whose lives still bear the scars of war;
Those who lost sight or limbs or reason;
Those who lost faith in God and hope for humanity.
All: We will remember them.

The Tryst:

They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
All: We will remember them.

Litany of Peace:

Where there is hate, may we sow love;
Lord, make us servants of your peace.
Where there is hurt, may we forgive;
Lord, make us servants of your peace.
Where there is strife, may we make the world one;
Lord, make us servants of your peace.
Where all is doubt, may we sow faith;
Lord, make us servants of your peace.
Where all is gloom, may we sow hope;
Lord, make us servants of your peace.
Where all is night, may we sow light;
Lord, make us servants of your peace.
Where all is tears, may we sow joy;
Lord, make us servants of your peace.

Jesus Christ, our Lord, may we not seek to be consoled, but to console, nor look to understanding hearts, but to look for hearts to understand.
May we not look for love's return, but seek to love unselfishly, for in our giving we receive, and in forgiving are forgiven.

(All) Dying, we live, and are reborn through death's dark night to endless day; Lord, make us servants of your peace, to wake at last in heaven's light. Amen.

* Royal Anthem: God save our gracious King 834

Prayer of Remembrance:

Loving God, you are the giver of every good gift,
and we remember today that one of your gifts is peace.
You have blessed us with freedom, and provide for all our needs.
O God, help us never to forget your gifts.

We remember those who gave their lives in two world wars,
the Korean War and the conflicts in the Gulf and Afghanistan.
We know that their sacrifice was part of your plan for us –
for our peace and freedom.
O God, help us never to forget the price they paid.

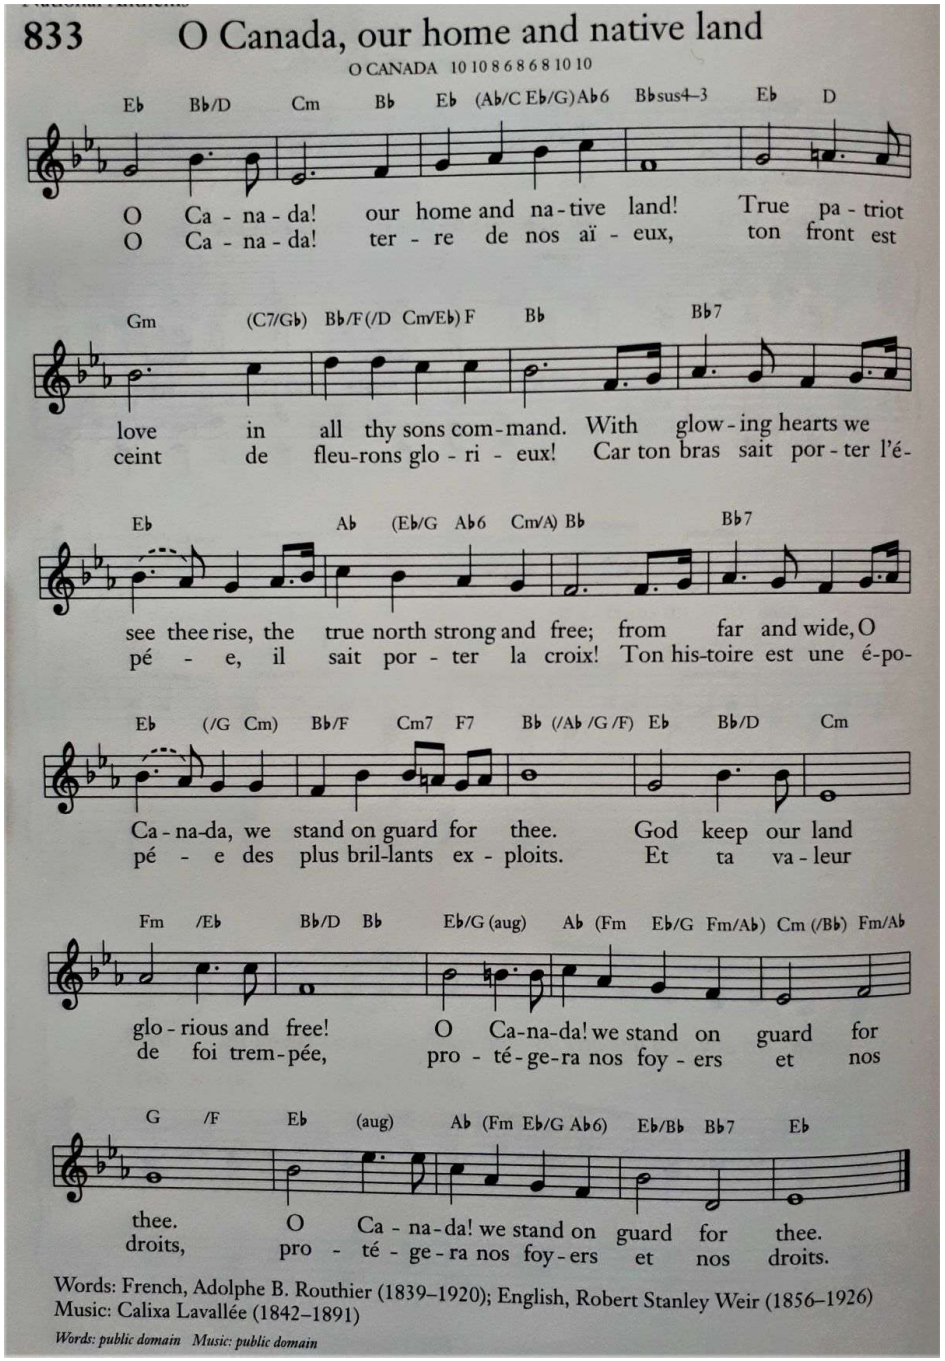

Lord Jesus Christ, you said that people have no greater love than to lay down their life for their friends.
You laid down your life for us, and you call us your friends.
We remember those who were killed or scarred in wars
and laid down a piece of their lives for us.
O God, help us never to forget your or their sacrifice.

Holy Spirit, we remember the homes and communities –
the workplaces, schools and families – that raised, and sometimes lost, these brave men and women, who heard your call to fight for your dream of peace.
May we live up to their example and accept the peace that you have offered to us through the love of Jesus Christ.
O God, help us to accept your offer to live in peace.

We remember that you are the source of peace and justice.
We pray with all our hearts for peace in our times.
Bring true peace to those places where conflicts rage:
Afghanistan, Ethiopia, Yemen, Libya, Somalia, Sudan;
and other places.
O God, help to bring an end to hatred and give us peace.

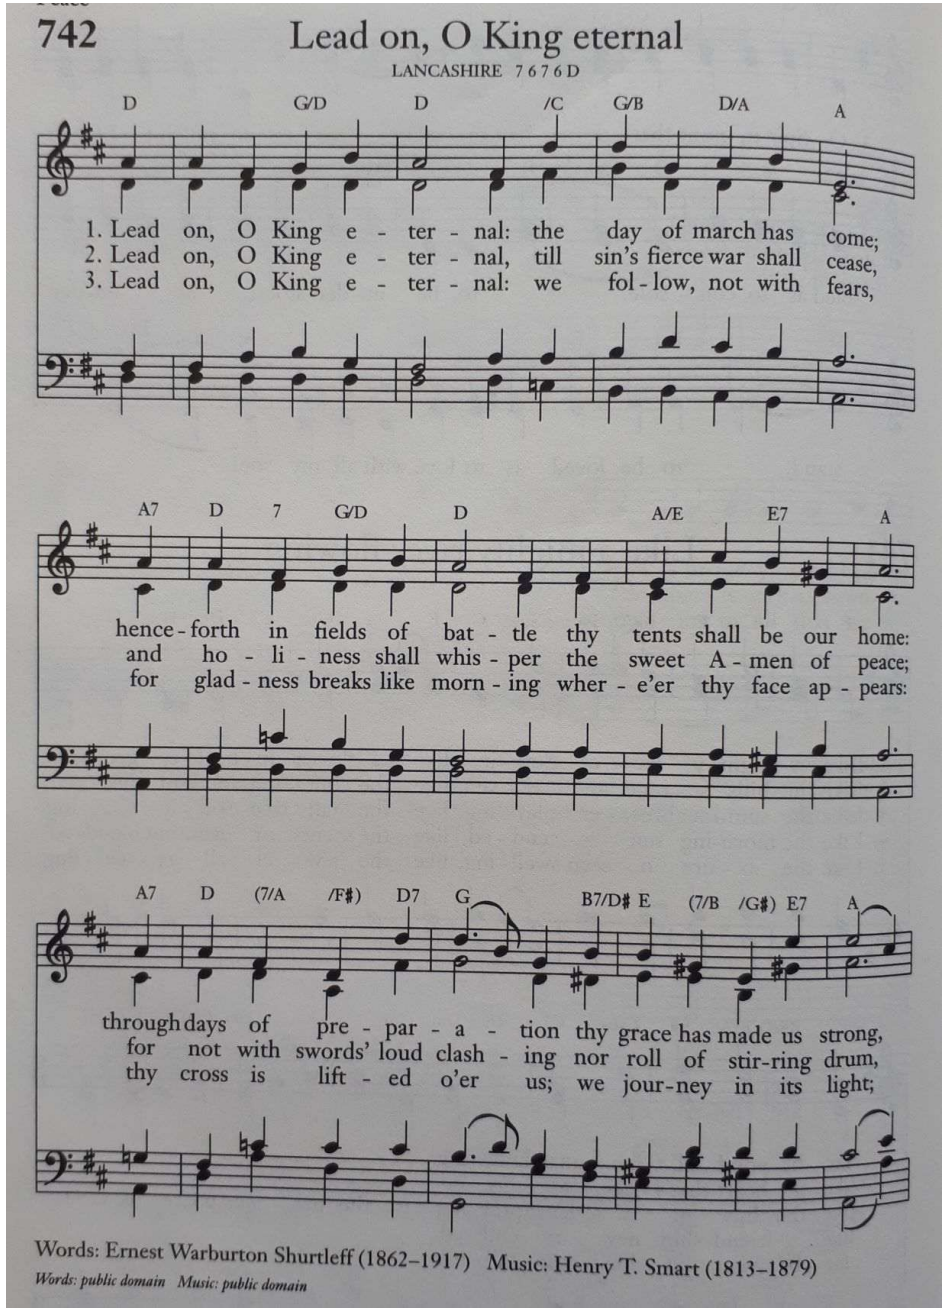

We hold up before you, O God, all those who work for peace:
the Canadian Armed Forces, our Canadian peacekeepers,
the RCMP, and those who work alongside them:
may they together know of our support and prayers,
as they show us what it means to live and die for peace.
O God, help us to be your peacemakers in all we say and do.

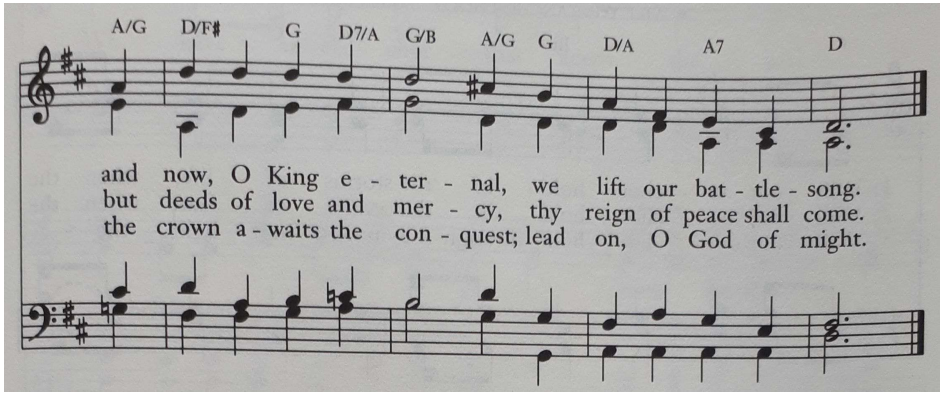

Hymns for Sunday, November 8, 2026:

God save our gracious King 834

God save our gracious King;
long live our noble King;
God save the King:
send him victorious, happy and glorious,
long to reign over us:
God save the King.

* The Apostles' Creed:

Let us confess our faith together in the words of The Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Readings for Sunday, November 8, 2026:

Scripture Lesson: Amos 5:1-18

Woe to you who desire the day of the Lord! Why do you want the day of the Lord? It is darkness, not light, as if someone fled from a lion and was met by a bear or went into the house and rested a hand against the wall and was bitten by a snake. Is not the day of the Lord darkness, not light, and gloom with no brightness in it? I hate, I despise your festivals, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies. Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them, and the offerings of well-being of your fatted animals I will not look upon. Take away from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the melody of your harps. But let justice roll down like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

(The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.)

Responsive Psalm: Psalm 70

R: Be pleased, O God, to deliver me. O Lord, make haste to help me!

C: Let those be put to shame and confusion who seek my life. Let those be turned back and brought to dishonor who desire to hurt me.

R: Let those who say, "Aha, Aha!" turn back because of their shame.

C: Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. Let those who love your salvation say evermore, "God is great!"

All: But I am poor and needy; hasten to me, O God! You are my help and my deliverer; O Lord, do not delay!

Do you love a Mystery?

Looking for something fun to brighten the winter months? Join the St. Andrews Mystery Dinners! On the first Saturday of January, February, and March, participants will either host or attend a dinner—with one delightful surprise: you won't know who is coming until the evening unfolds.
